New Delhi, the 20th September 1966

S.R.O. 229.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 184, read with sub-section (4) of section 14 of the Navy Act, 1957 (62 of 1957), the Central Government hereby makes the following regulations, namely:—

1. Short Title.—These regulations may be called the Naval Officers on the Retired List (Liability to Recall for Service) Regulations, 1966.

2. Definitions.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Active List" means the list of officers of the Indian Navy who are not placed either on the "Retired List" or on the "Emergency List".

(b) "Retired List" means the list of commissioned officers of the Indian Navy who have retired from service therein either with pension or gratuity and who, in the event of an emergency, are liable to be recalled to service.

(2) All words and expressions used, but not defined, in these regulations and defined in the Navy Act, 1957 and in the Naval Ceremonial, Conditions of Service and Miscellaneous Regulations, 1964, shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Act and those Regulations.

3. Recall to service.—Officers on the Retired List shall be liable to recall for service till they attain the age of 55, in the event of an emergency and the notice of recall may be given to such officers by signal, telegram or by letter; on receipt of such notice the officers shall forthwith report for duty at the place mentioned in the said notice.

4. Pay and allowances when called up for service.—(1) Officers recalled for service shall receive pay and allowances as are applicable to commissioned officers of the Indian Navy. For purposes of determining reckonable service for pay, the full-pay commissioned service rendered shall be taken into account. Any ante-date allowed for purposes of pay during the previous spell of service shall also be taken into account.

(2) Officers so recalled shall cease to draw their pension during service on such recall. If an officer has already commuted a portion of his pension, the commuted pension shall be deducted from the pay.

(3) In the case of officers who had retired with a gratuity only and are recalled to service, a deduction on account of the pension equivalent of gratuity shall be made from their pay, except where the monthly pension equivalent of gratuity does not exceed Rs. 120; in cases where the monthly pension equivalent of gratuity exceeds Rs. 120, only the amount in excess of Rs. 120 shall be recovered.

(4) Outfit allowance.—Officers on recall to service shall be entitled to an outfit allowance proportionate to the number of completed years previously spent on the Active List plus the amount, if any, which they refunded on release and the balance shall be admissible to them on completing a further period of service on the Active List to make up seven years from the date of the grant of the last initial or renewal outfit allowance.

Illustration.—An officer who had completed five years active service before release subsequent to drawing initial or renewal allowance will on recall to service be given 5/7th of the renewal outfit grant and will be paid the balance of 2/7th on completing two years on the Active List. For a further grant of renewal outfit allowance, the said period of seven years will reckon from the date of the second payment, that is to say, when the said balance becomes due.

5. Seniority on Recall.—(1) An officer on recall to service shall take seniority in his rank from the date of such recall and shall be placed junior to all regular officers holding similar rank on that date.

(2) The seniority of officers on the Retired List inter se shall be decided on the basis of the date of promotion to the substantive ranks held by them.

6. Acting Promotions after recall.—Officers on the Retired List on recall to service shall be eligible for acting promotions to higher ranks under the same rules as are applicable to regular officers of the Indian Navy.

7. Leave.—(1) The following types of leave shall be admissible to officers on the Retired List, namely:—

(a) On recall to active service

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| (i) Casual Leave | } As admissible to regular serving officers of the Indian Navy under the rules in force from time to time. |
| (ii) Annual Leave | |
| (iii) Furlough | |
| (iv) Sick Leave | |

(b) On termination of active service

Balance of any annual leave under clause (a) admissible under the rules in force and applicable to them.

(2) Officers on the Retired List who at the time of recall to active service were employed in civil departments shall, during such service be granted leave in accordance with clause (a) of sub-regulation (1). They shall, however, earn leave during naval service in accordance with leave rules applicable to them while serving in the civil departments before transfer to naval service, provided they retain a lien in the respective civil departments. The amount of leave actually taken by such personnel while in naval service shall be deducted from their civil leave accounts. Any case of excess consumption of leave during naval service shall be condoned; and if the leave taken during such service is less than that earned during a comparable period of civil service, the difference shall be credited to their leave accounts in the civil departments.

8. Travelling Allowance on recall to active service.—(a) An officer on the Retired List when called up for service and when discharged on termination thereof, shall be entitled to the same rate of travelling allowance as is admissible to regular officers under the travel regulations applicable to officers of the defence forces.

(b) During service on recall and also on being compelled to resign his commission on account of circumstances beyond his control, an officer shall be entitled to conveyance allowance as is admissible to regular officers.

(c) (i) On dismissal or removal from service or on being permitted to resign his commission to avoid dismissal from service, an officer may be allowed free conveyance on warrant for return to his permanent place of residence or to the place where he last held the civil post, at the discretion of the Chief of the Naval Staff provided the Chief of the Naval Staff is satisfied that the officer is unable to pay for his own conveyance or of that of his family or both. The class of accommodation to be provided shall be such as the Chief of the Naval Staff may order in each case. The scale of baggage shall be restricted to that permitted as free allowance on railway travel. Free conveyance of servants shall not be admissible.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing regulations, during the period of operation of the Proclamation of Emergency, issued under clause (1) of Article 352 of the Constitution on the 26th October, 1962, travelling allowance on permanent duty scale shall be granted for the officer himself when posted to a peace station provided that the anticipated period of stay at that station exceeds three months, and on temporary duty scale with baggage upto 750 Kilograms in other cases. Cash advance towards travelling allowance may, if required, be drawn from the nearest naval establishment.

(d) If required to undergo medical examination before reporting for duty on recall to service, travelling concession shall be admissible as indicated below:—

- (i) One first class single-fare for journey performed by rail and road mileage at the rate laid down in rule 201 read with rule 202 of the travel regulations applicable to officers of the defence services as is admissible for a first grade officer for journeys performed by road, from the ordinary place of residence to the place of medical examination and return;

Explanation.—If two stations are not connected by rail, and the popular means of public conveyance is an omnibus, mileage allowance admissible to an individual shall be at such lower rates as may be fixed by the competent authority. If the distance involved exceeds 50 miles, one bus fare or two bus fares for a return journey will be paid.

- (ii) One first class single fare, exclusive of the cost of meals for journey performed by steamer.
- (iii) If the journey is performed by rail or steamer by any class lower than first class, one fare of the class in which the journey is actually performed shall be admissible.
- (iv) If the journey by rail or steamer begins or ends at a place which is nearer to the place of medical test than to the ordinary place of residence, travelling allowance shall be admissible only to or from such nearer place.
- (v) Travelling allowance for any journey shall be admissible as for a journey performed by the cheapest practicable route irrespective of the particular mode in which the journey is performed.
- (vi) If any part of the journey is performed on a steamer, no further travelling allowance shall be admissible for that journey.
- (vii) Daily allowance shall be admissible for halts at the rate applicable to first grade officers, for every 24 hours. For fractions of 24 hours, daily allowance shall be admissible as follows, namely:—

Upto 6 hours

Nil

Exceeding 6 hours but not exceeding 12 hours

Half daily allowance

Exceeding 12 hours

Full daily allowance.

The travelling concessions specified in sub-clauses (i) to (vii) shall be admissible within Indian limits only.

9. Defence Services Officers Provident Fund—Officers recalled to service shall be required to subscribe to Defence Services Officers' Provident Fund, compulsorily, the minimum rate of subscription shall be 6 per cent of the pay.

10. Pension benefits.—Officers on the Retired List, on recall to service shall be entitled to pension benefits in accordance with the orders issued in that behalf from time to time.

11. Every officer on the Retired List shall report in writing to the Chief of the Naval Staff in January each year, his present address and shall intimate any change of address whenever such change occurs. Before proceeding out of India (otherwise than for purely temporary purposes), they shall first obtain the approval of the Central Government through the Chief of the Naval Staff.

12. Liability for failure to report for duty.—An officer who fails to report for duty or service when so required, for which he is liable by virtue of being on the Retired List, is liable to be proceeded against under the Navy Act, for such failure.

13. General.—All other terms and conditions of service of officers on recall to service, where such terms and conditions are not at variance with the provisions of these regulations, shall be the same as are applicable to serving regular officers of the Indian Navy.

New Delhi, the 27th September 1966

S.R.O. 233.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of the stabling or herding of animals and for licensing of premises for use as stables or cow-houses in the Mathura Cantonment made by the Cantonment Board, Mathura in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (11) and (57) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS FOR THE STABLING OR HERDING OF ANIMALS AND FOR LICENSING OF PREMISES FOR USE AS STABLES OR COW-HOUSES IN THE MATHURA CANTONMENT

1. Definitions.—In these bye-laws,—

(a) "cow-house" means a house, shed or building in which horned cattle are lodged and fed.

(b) "stable" means any house, shed, building or room in a house, shed or building in which horses, ponies, mules or donkeys are lodged and fed.

2. No person shall use any stable or cow-house within the Cantonment for picketing of animals except under and in accordance with a licence granted under these bye-laws.

3. No animal shall be picketed in any open space in the Cantonment or inside the compound of bungalows or houses except in open spaces or sheds specially earmarked by the owner thereof and approved by the Executive Officer for the purpose provided that such open spaces or sheds are being kept clean in the manner prescribed in these bye-laws.

4. (1) Every person desiring to take out such a licence under bye-law 2 shall apply in that behalf to the Executive Officer and the Executive Officer may grant the licence or may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse it.

(2) The number of animals to be picketed in any premises shall be determined by the Executive Officer.

5. Every licence shall be deemed to be for one year ending on the 31st March next, after the date from which it is expressed to take effect.

6. (1) No licence shall be granted for any stable or cow house which does not provide a superficial area of 4 sq. metres for each head of cattle authorised to be kept therein provided that a licence may be granted for an existing stall of lesser dimensions, if, in the opinion of the Board, it is provided with facilities for sufficient drainage and ventilation and is suitable for the purpose.

(2) No licence shall be granted for premises for the accommodation of sheep or goats unless a space of at least 2 sq. metres is allowed for each animal.

7. The floors of all premises licensed under these bye-laws shall be of some suitable impervious material approved by the Executive Officer and shall be so surfaced as to facilitate drainage.

8. No licence shall be granted for any premises situated below any place which is used for human habitation without the prior approval of the Health Officer.

9. A licence shall not be granted for any premises within 30 metres from any bakery, licensed butcher's shop, public water reservoir, temple or other place of religious worship, if, in the opinion of the Health Officer, the grant of such licence is, from the sanitary point of view, objectionable.

10. (1) Every licensee shall deposit or cause to be deposited all the dung and dried refuse from the licensed premises in such place or places as the Executive Officer may fix for this purpose and the Health Officer may approve.

(2) Nothing in this bye-law shall prevent the licensee from selling or otherwise disposing of cow-dung provided the method of disposal is approved by the Executive Officer.

11. The licensee shall not use, or allow to be used, any premises licensed under these bye-laws for human habitation.

12. Every licensee shall cause the licensed premises to be cleaned out daily between 6 A.M. and 8 A.M. from the 1st April to 30th September, and between 7 A.M. and 9 A.M. from the 1st October to 31st March and shall also cause the walls and ceiling thereof to be lime-washed once in every six months.

13. The Executive Officer may suspend or cancel any licence for a breach of any of the provisions of these bye-laws.

14. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Executive Officer under bye-law 4 or bye-law 13 may, within thirty days from the date on which such decision was communicated to him, prefer an appeal to the Board, whose decision shall be final.

15. The licensee shall give all necessary facilities to the Executive Officer, Health Officer, or any other officer or servant appointed by the Board in this behalf, to inspect the licensed premises and the animals kept thereon at any time between sunrise and sunset.

16. On the occurrence of any outbreak of infectious disease among the cattle kept on the licensed premises, the licensee shall immediately inform the Executive Officer and the Health Officer of the fact and shall, pending their orders, segregate the animals affected.

17. Any person committing a breach of any of these bye-laws shall, on conviction by a Magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and in case of a continuing breach thereof, with an additional fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which such breach continues after conviction for the first such breach.

(ii) The State or Union Territory Managing Committee shall forward in February each year a statement giving a brief account of its activities during the year indicating the manner in which the funds have been spent on the objects of the Fund, the balance at the disposal of the Fund and the manner in which the assets of the Fund are proposed to be spent in the succeeding year.

(iii) The Central Managing Committee may communicate their comments on the proposals to the State or Union Territory Managing Committee and the State or Union Territory Managing Committee shall take such comments into consideration before finalising their proposals.

11. Conduct of Business.—(a) The Central, State or Union Territory Managing Committee may meet for the conduct of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings and proceedings as may be determined by the bye-laws.

(b) The quorum for a meeting of the Managing Committee shall be three members personally present at the meeting and a meeting of the Managing Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the functions of the Committee.

(c) The meeting shall be presided over by the Chairman or, in his absence, Vice-Chairman of the Managing Committee. In case the Chairman or Vice-Chairman is not present in a meeting, the members present in person shall, before the commencement of the proceeding, elect the Chairman of the meeting.

(d) Every matter shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and voting. The Secretary, unless he is also a member, shall have no right to vote. In case of equality of votes the matter shall be decided according to the casting vote of the Chairman of the Committee or meeting, as the case may be.

12. Framing Bye-Laws.—The Central, State or Union Territory Managing Committee may make bye-laws for the detailed regulation, management and any other purpose connected with the execution of the Fund and the trusts thereof and may alter, vary or rescind the same from time to time.

13. Delegation of powers.—The Central, State or Union Territory Managing Committee may delegate any of its powers to any Sub-Committee formed from amongst its members for the purpose of running the day to day affairs of the Fund.

14. Right to transfer the Fund.—(1) The Central, State or Union Territory Managing Committee shall have the right to transfer the respective Fund or any part thereof to any other society or association established for the promotion of objects similar to the objects of the Fund provided that prior approval of the Central Government or the concerned State/Union Territory Government/Administration as the case may be, has been obtained in that regard.

(ii) The Central Government may if it deems necessary on account of the re-organisation of a State, distribute the Fund of that State to other States or Union Territories for management by the Managing Committees of such States or Union Territories.

15. Members of the Managing Committee not entitled to remuneration.—Members of the Managing Committee shall not be entitled to any remuneration.

16. Appointment of Staff.—The Resettlement Directorate, Ministry of Defence shall provide the necessary staff for the clerical work of the Central Managing Committee and the office of the State/Union Territory Soldiers', Sailors' and Airmen's Board shall provide the staff for the clerical work of the State/Union Territory Managing Committee concerned.

17. Deposit and investment of moneys.—The Central State or Union Territory Managing Committee shall invest a portion of the moneys of the Fund in trustee securities as may be considered appropriate by it and then vest it in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments for India or the concerned State, as the case may be. It may keep the balance of the moneys in one or more accounts at the State Bank of India or any of its subsidiaries or any scheduled Bank the deposits in which, according to the last annual balance sheet are not less than Rs. 10 crores.

18. Operation of Accounts.—(i) The Accounts of the Central Fund shall be operated jointly by the Director General of Resettlement and the Secretary of the Central Fund on behalf of the Central Managing Committee.

(ii) The Accounts of the State Fund/Union Territory Fund shall be operated jointly by the Chief Secretary of the concerned State/Union Territory Government or Administration or his representative on the State/Union Territory Managing Committee and the Secretary of the State/Union Territory Fund on behalf of the State/Union Territory Managing Committee.

19. Accounts and Audit.—Regular accounts shall be kept of all moneys and properties belonging to the Fund and shall be audited by a firm of chartered accountants or any other recognised auditor as may be appointed by the Central, State or Union Territory Managing Committee for the Central Fund, the State Fund, or the Union Territory Fund, as the case may be. The auditor shall also certify that the expenditure from the Fund has been correctly incurred in accordance with the objects of the Fund.

20. Periodical Reports.—Annual Reports showing the schemes financed from the Fund, and the annual audited statement of accounts shall be rendered to the Central Government (Ministry of Defence) to the State Government and to the Union Territory Government or Administration, by the Secretary to the Central, State or Union Territory Managing Committee, as the case may be, after the close of the financial year but not later than six months thereof.
